Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall, NY

Bringing the joy of music to students and audiences across America lies at the heart of Music-Fest's mission. From Baroque to Contemporary, with musical presentations spanning a wide range of instruments as well as voice, Music-Fest provides the perfect forum for developing young musicians' artistic sensibilities and creativity. Additionally, Music-Fest performances help inspire a lifelong desire for continued musical education and growth.

Music-Fest is a wonderful opportunity for young musicians to publicly demonstrate their talents, gaining through this experience the sense of responsibility, concentration, and self-esteem that result from performing in front of an audience.
